DO YOU TALK VEND?

Little Known Language Is a Product of Norwegians Who Settled in Jug-Slavia Century Ago.

CHICAGO, April 29.—A newspaper clipping in some queer tongue lay on the desk of Michael O'Malley, assistant superintendent of mails at the Chicago postoffice. Attached to it was a typewritten English translation.

"What is that?" said Mr. O'Malley in response to a visitor's question. "Oh, that's Vend, one of the 41 languages which our newspaper translators know."

For the benefit of those who have never heard of a language called Vend, it is its story, as told by Mr. O'Malley:

Hundreds of years ago, a hand of

New Vikings forsook the sea and moved overland into what is now

Jug-Slavia. Here they found a handful of people who spoke the language of the present day.

From that union of Norwegian

and the Slav dialect a hybrid language grew, and today their de-

sendants in that valley speak Vend,

and in Chicago there is a native

newspaper published in that language.

Although the postoffice employees are mostly of Chinese students as gra clerks and carriers, none of them have proven able to translate the various Chinese dialects into English, and the specialist in this language is a Norwegian.

HELP ALONG FIELDS BOOM

Washington County Republicans to Endorse Candidacy Friday.

Special to The World.

BARTLESVILLE, April 26.—The republicans of Washington county possess a widespread sentiment that prevails for John Fields as candidate for governor. This will probably find expression at a mass meeting to be held at the county courthouse next Friday night. E. L. O'Neal, chairman of the republican county central committee, decided to call for the mass meeting after he conferred with members of the party from all parts of the county and found the demand for Fields as a candidate for governor was about universal.
